Generation Respect!

Practical Activities and Applications to Learn

All about RESPECT!

Created by: Beverly Gonzalez
RESPECT

Treat others as you would want to be treated. Treat people with dignity, making sure to value their opinions and thoughts.

Imagine that a few youngsters have mistreated a boy by calling him names and dismissing his request to join a game. Write a few short sentences telling how you would have treated the boy with respect. Use the words in the box to help you formulate ideas.

kindness    friendly    considerate    patient kind        appreciate     like       loyalty generous     support      appreciate     leadership generosity     compassion     caring       integrity
Unscramble the RESPECTFUL words.

1. ndifrely

2. raignc

3. yotlaly

4. nietapt

5. gyrittenit
Read the clues, then write the words.

Start at the bottom and climb to the top.

RESPECT!

Take away one letter and add two letters.

What do you do when something is lost?

M E A N

Change one letter.

This rhymes with mean and you can eat it with rice.

Take away two vowels and replace it with a different one.

This is another word for a container.

Take away one letter.

The opposite of mean is__________.
RESPECT - BUILD A SENTENCE

YOU MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Demonstrating appreciation or gratitude towards someone is an effective way to validate a person. To validate someone is an excellent way to show your respect for that person. You can show appreciation to a person in many different ways. Think about what you can do for one of your family members that will show that person that you appreciate him/her. Below you will find coupons you can fill in. Tell the person that he/she can redeem the coupon at any time.

Appreciation Coupons

Examples of things you can do to show appreciation: (give away two compliments for the day, give away two hugs, cook a meal for the person, draw a picture, write a sentence about your love for the person)
Demonstrating respect should become a habit for us. Something we do consistently. It should be part of who we are. In order to develop good habits, establishing some goals will set a pathway to displaying a good, healthy character.

Directions: Think about the goals below and decide which goal goes into each of the labeled jars. Cut out the goals and glue it in the appropriate jar in the following pages. Reflect on each goal and make it a priority to reach it! Good Luck and have fun!
